

INFORMATION SECURITY AND DATA RETENTION POLICY
SOCIETE GENERALE, INDIA

CONTENTS

- I. INTRODUCTION & SCOPE
- II. MOBILE DEVICE & INFRASTRUCTURE SECURITY
- III. DATA LOCALIZATION AND STORAGE RESTRICTIONS
- IV. RECORD RETENTION & PURGING SCHEDULE
- V. INCIDENT RESPONSE & DISCLOSURE
- VI. GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL TIMELINES

I. INTRODUCTION & SCOPE

Societe Generale, India ("SG India") establishes this Information Security and Data Retention Policy ("Security Policy") to de

This Security Policy applies to all IT systems, employees, contractors, third-party service providers, and business units oper

II. MOBILE DEVICE & INFRASTRUCTURE SECURITY

- 1. Access Controls: Access to SG India network infrastructure requires multi-factor authentication for all users.
- 2. Infrastructure Supervision: The security posture of SG India infrastructure is governed under local IT Security guidelines a
- 3. Tape & Media Backups: Offline tape backups must be encrypted using AES-256 standards before offsite vault transfer.
- 4. Mobile Device Usage (BYOD): Employees accessing corporate email or document repositories on personal mobile device

III. DATA LOCALIZATION AND STORAGE RESTRICTIONS

- 1. Local Server Mandate: All Sensitive Personal Data and Information (SPDI) of Indian citizens and account holders process
- 2. Cross-Border Cloud Transfer Prohibition: No SPDI or customer personal records may be transferred to, stored on, or pro

IV. RECORD RETENTION & PURGING SCHEDULE

- 1. Purpose Limitation: Customer data shall be processed strictly for operational and regulatory compliance needs.
- 2. Mandatory Minimum Retention: All customer transaction logs, personal identifiers, physical documentation, and account h
- 3. Log Purging: System access logs and security audit trails must be purged exactly after twelve (12) months.

V. INCIDENT RESPONSE & DISCLOSURE

- 1. Security Incident Escalation: Any potential breach of customer data or unauthorized system entry must be reported to the
- 2. External Disclosure: Incident disclosure to external regulatory authorities or law enforcement agencies shall only occur up

VI. GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL TIMELINES

- 1. Grievance Officer Escalation: Discrepancies, security complaints, or data privacy grievances submitted by information pro
- 2. Resolution Deadline: The Grievance Redressal Officer shall formally investigate, address, and resolve all grievances sub